

Curricular Area: Food Technology		Subject: Skills for Work: Hospitality with Barista
National 4 (SCQF Level 4)		National 5 (SCQF Level 5)
Course Content		Course Content
Skills for Work: Hospitality provides an introduction to the different commercial and non-commercial sectors of the hospitality industry and the types of provision they offer. This course will develop the learner’s knowledge and skills in: - organisational aims of hospitality establishments and the products and services they provide. - vocational skills and knowledge while gaining practical experiences in menu planning; preparing, cooking and presenting a range of foods; serving food and drinks; undertaking reception and customer care; and planning, organising and running hospitality events.		Skills for Work: Hospitality provides an introduction to the different commercial and non-commercial sectors of the hospitality industry and the types of provision they offer. Pupils will gain an additional Level 5 qualification in Barista as well as their REHIS Hygiene Certificate. This course will develop the learner’s knowledge and skills in: - organisational aims of hospitality establishments and the products and services they provide. - vocational skills and knowledge while gaining practical experiences in menu planning; preparing, cooking and presenting a range of foods; serving food and drinks; undertaking reception and customer care; and planning, organising and running hospitality events. - Barista and the industry that encompasses barista.
How will the course be assessed?		How will the course be assessed?
Internal on-going assessment throughout the year in various formats: - practical activities (pop up restaurants and events) - coursework folio - interview		Internal on-going assessment throughout the year in various formats: - practical activities (pop up restaurants and events) - coursework folio - interview
Career Pathways
Chef, Hotel Receptionist, Event Manager, Tourism Assistant, Front of House, House Keeping, Hotel General Manager, Barista. Browse this website for more careers: https://tastycareers.org.uk/			